(WSS) = Warburg State School
(GCSS) = Gladstone Central State School

SECTION ONE
Highly Commended:

SECTION TWO Years 4 - 7
Award recipients:

First Prize:
Angela Johnston
Majestic Tree (WSS)

The day we went across the road to paint a landscape, I saw the majestic tree.

Second Prize:
Jasmine Barnes
Aussie Cricket (GWSS)

Cricket is an Aussie tradition. Gum nuts and gum leaves are from Aussie plants. I also did the Australian and Aboriginal flags.

Third Prize:
Liam Madsen
Powerhouse (GWSS)

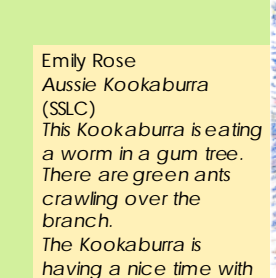

The Powerhouse running to keep Gladstone power running. There's also the great Aussie sun.

SECTION TWO
Highly Commended:

Brigette Kelly
Aussie, Aussie, Aussie,
Oi, Oi, Oi (SSLC)

I chose to draw this because Ned Kelly is very Australian, and nearly every Australian eats Vegemite. By the way, lots of Australian people sometimes see dingoes.

Emily Rose
Aussie Kookaburra (SSLC)

This Kookaburra is eating a worm in a gum tree. There are green ants crawling over the branch. The Kookaburra is having a nice time with the sun setting in the background. I chose to draw this artwork because I like Kookaburras and I thought nobody would do the same thing. The Kookaburra in the sunset is a good picture to draw.

Harriet Crawford
Baffle Creek (WSS)

Yellow sand, bright blue sky, Uluru and Australian animals. This brings our beach and bush culture together.

Blake Irving
The Red Rock of Australia (TSSS)

The Red Rock of Australia takes you back when Australia formed with Uluru, the red rock of Australia. Uluru is a popular landmark because of all the native animals you can see like kangaroos, lizards, snakes and much more. You can go camping and even climb Uluru. That's the Red Rock of Australia.
