

replant

a new generation of botanical art

- Fiona Hall • Winsome Jobling •
- Irene Mungatopi • Marita Sambono •
- Judy Watson • Deborah Wurrkidj • Peter Eve •

©JudyWatson bat-wing coral tree, red beantree 2006 etching on paper

An excursion into the remarkable world of plants. Cultural stories, traditional plant use and scientific knowledge are distilled together in an acutely observed survey of flora in the Top End.

The Gladstone Regional Art Gallery and Museum invite you to

replant

a new generation of botanical art

an Artback NT: Arts Development and Touring Exhibition presented by Museum and Gallery Services Queensland

To be officially opened by

Cr Gail Sellers, Mayor Gladstone Region

Official exhibition launch Saturday 28 May 11.30am with light lunch to follow

10.30am free natural fibre basket making workshop

RSVP Thursday 26 May 2011

Ph: 49766 766 or E: gragm@gladstonerc.qld.gov.au

Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum
cnr Goondoon & Bramston Sts, Gladstone Q 4680

Admission is free

Exhibition continues until 25 June 2011

Arts Development and Touring

www.nomadart.com.au

Replant: a new generation of botanical art has been curated and coordinated by Angus and Rose Cameron of Nomad Art Productions. The project was assisted by the Australian Government through the Australia Council, its arts funding and advisory body and the Northern Territory Government through the Department of Natural Resources, Environment and the Arts and the Research and Innovation Board & Fund.