TOWN HALL TURNS 80

The Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum's Town Hall building celebrates its 80th year with a historical exhibition looking back at the building's diverse uses. Originally built during the depression as a job stimulus initiative for local families, the elegant building served for many years as Gladstone's City Council Chambers and Town Hall. As the city expanded and the region's needs reformed, the building took on the new role in 1985 as Gladstone's Art Gallery & Museum which it still is today.
