A Gladstone Saiki Sister City Advisory Committee initiative, modelled on Japan's centuries old annual Children's Day, offering Gladstone Region's children a glimpse into the lives of their Japanese peers, through a variety of hands-on craft activities.

This is the 6th year this FREE annual event has run at the Gallery & Museum, each year more popular than the previous one.

NOTES FOR SCHOOLS:

Booking is essential as numbers are limited. Fill in enclosed Group Booking Form and specify group numbers and preferred time slot.

I UNDERSTAND:

Photography will be taken at Saiki Children's Day 2016. This may be taken by local media as well as by Gallery & Museum staff. Any photographs taken may be used for promotional purposes, both print and online (including social media). Please make staff aware of any children that do not have photography permission.

There won't be face painting at Saiki Children's Day 2016, however there will be loud Taiko Drumming. Please be aware that children with sensitivity concerns may find this noise overwhelming.
