Gladstone Australia Day Celebrate Australia Art Competition Exhibition Catalogue

As part of Gladstone City Council's Australia Day 2007 celebrations Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum, Tondoon Botanic Gardens and the Gladstone Entertainment Centre called for primary school entries in our Celebrate Australia Art Competition to help us celebrate who and what makes Australia great.

Section One entrants are from Pre School to Year 3

Section Two entrants are from Year 4 to Year 7

Entries were judged by Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum Director, Pamela Whitlock.

The winners received their awards in a presentation ceremony held at the Tondoon Botanic Gardens 26 January 2007.

All entries are on exhibition until 4 February 2007

SECTION TWO: Award recipients

First Prize:

Laura Darrach (CSS)
Koala

The koala is lovable, cuddly, lives in the trees, eats only eucalypt leaves, does not drink, is an icon to Australia and loved by all. Tourists come to photograph and cuddle them.

Second Prize:

Isobelle Collocott, (KKSS)
Walking Through the Outback

Walking through the outback is a great Aussie adventure.

Third Prize:

Michaela Casey-Ransom (HS)
St Kilda Beach

I've always loved going to the beach. It's great because of Australia's hot climate and I love swimming. I think it is a privilege to live in Australia and I hope that never changes.

Highly Commended:

James Cartwright, (KKSS)
Rex Hunt

This here is a picture of Rex Hunt fishing in a river. He is hunting for barra with a red and white lure. A barra jumped behind Rex's boat.

Highly Commended:

Rebecca Harbourne, (KKSS)
The Environment

Its about helping our environment stay alive and doing what we should be doing, helping the animals. And I think they should be loved by everyone, because having animals is a gift, without them this world would be nothing. So why are we killing them?
