The Bunbury Players

The Bunbury Players performance polishing is in the final stages as they head towards their presentation of the incredible The King & I musical. Don't miss this fantastic production during three performances at the newly refurbished Gladstone Entertainment Convention Centre (GECC) November 7 to 9, including matinee.

The classic musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein is set in Siam (now Thailand) in the late 19th Century. The King, an absolute ruler brings an English teacher (Anna) to Siam to educate his children and wives. As the story progresses we see the King and Anna's respect for each other bring about many changes in the country.

SUNfest 2014 activities

The Gladstone Regional Council's annual youth summer holiday program SUNfest, offers an enormous range of activities for young people looking for something different to do during the school holidays.

Each year Council teams up with the generous support of local businesses and industries to present this fantastic opportunity.

Since 2009, Gladstone Festivals Events have helped to present SUNfest and in 2014 the program will run from Monday January 6 to Friday January 17, promising a more-than-ever, super-exciting summer holiday season. SUNfest favourites, Brisbane based artists IZIT!

Entertainment, Bazil Grumble and Hoozatt Entertainers will make their way back to the Gladstone Region presenting an ever-innovative arts program, alongside talented local artists.

Tickets go on sale 10am Wednesday December 4 at the GECC. For further information please contact Kathy Andrew, Gladstone Festival & Events on 4972 5111 or email kathy@gladstonefestival.com

Embroiderers Guild Queensland Inc. Gladstone Branch Celebrates 30th Birthday

Congratulations to President Bronwyn Mann and the talented artists of the Embroiderers Guild Queensland, celebrating their 30th birthday. Founded in 1983, the group has always enjoyed great success in the Gladstone Region, even welcoming members from further afield such as Mackay, Rockhampton and Biloela. Hosting their first exhibition at the Calliope Library / Gallery in their founding year was just the beginning of a long list of accomplishments for the group as they list a fantastic score of awards including:

National Dame Mary Durack Outback Craft Award in 1991 to member Lyn Lee and the Viewers Choice Award or the Affiliates Exhibition of the Queensland Embroiderers Guild 2007 to member Val Gill.

A strong sense of community has seen guild members work a quilt for the Quilt 4 Kids charity and create bonnets in memory of convict women and their children who died while incarcerated at the Female Factory Historic Site, South Hobart 1788 to 1853.

*Come along to Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum to enjoy the works of many of the members, during 30 Years of Passion: The Embroiderers' Guild Qld. Inc. Gladstone Branch 1983-2013
Open 10am – 5pm, Monday to Saturday until 25 October 2013*
