POWER SOUP

The Young Dancers Company of Central Qld presents "Power Soup", a unique multimedia and dance installation choreographed by professional dancer Fleur Conlon in collaboration with visual artist Rigobert Pupache. Power Soup is a dialogue between movement, space and visual art creating an atmosphere of what symbolises power in an industrial zone and how that affects Gladstone. Supported by the Gladstone Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF), a Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council partnership program to support local arts and culture.

PERFORMANCE ON 29 JUNE - 1 JULY 2013

COASTAL SAGA

An exploration of the coastline in its many different manifestations over the years from Wreck Rock to Cape Keppel. Historical and contemporary material from the permanent collection presented in conjunction with loans from the community.

EXHIBITION EXTENDED UNTIL 13 JULY 2013
