Queensland's biggest arts network

Wild Goose Theatre Company MAD Camp 2014 Bursary Music, Art, Drama and Dance

The Gladstone Arts Council announces the second Wild Goose Theatre MAD Camp Bursary with thanks to the generous support of this local theatre group.

With more than 20 local performances to date, right across the Gladstone Region, the Wild Goose Theatre Company has enjoyed enormous success since their 2009 inception.

The Bursary will assist a Gladstone Region student to attend the fantastic 2014 Artslink Queensland MAD Camp, to be held from 21 to 26 September 2014 at Ipswich Girls' Grammar School, for young people in Years 10, 11 & 12, in 2014.

To be eligible students must be a resident of the Gladstone Region local government area.

The Bursary of $450 will be paid direct to Artslink Qld for the MAD Camp registration and up to $150 reimbursement will be paid to the successful young artist towards travel.

Send a completed registration form along with copy of your current resume to Gladstone Arts Council Inc.
PO Box 775, Gladstone Q 4680 by Friday 2 August 2014

The successful applicant will be notified on Monday 11 August 2014

Gladstone Arts Council Inc.
Artslink Queensland
Affiliation

Gladstone Arts Council Inc. (GAC) aims is to invigorate the cultural life of the community, encouraging artistic expression, establishing networks and providing opportunities for participation in arts and cultural activities.

The GAC is affiliated with Artslink Queensland, one of the largest regional arts networks and not-for-profit community based arts organisations in the state.

Artslink Queensland is supported by the State and Federal Governments, working closely with local Councils to play a national advocacy role for regional arts and acts as this state's member of the national body: Regional Arts Australia.

Artslink Queensland operates core programs that provide arts access state-wide and reach a wide audience of Queenslanders annually, including the Schools Program to fire the enthusiasm of students throughout the state with the world's largest performances for schools program.

Community Support

What's On?

*Young Dancers Association auspice by GAC
Costume Design Workshops, 4-5 July 2014*

Working with the Young Dancers Association, costumier and couturier, Anastasia La Fey, will design costumes and conduct workshops, culminating in an exhibition at the Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum.

Supported by the Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF). The RADF is Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council partnership program to support local arts and culture.

The program coincides with the Young Dancers Association performance of The Magic Toyshop at the Gladstone Entertainment Convention Centre, January 2015.

*Animating Spaces
September 2014*

Artslink Queensland has announced the five towns that will take up the Animating Spaces challenge in 2014: Yeppoon, Roma, Samford, Cooktown and Gladstone. Projects will begin in February with events taking place between July and September.

Locally, the event will be held at the Gladstone Aquatic Centre from 3pm to 9pm Saturday, 27 September 2014.

Animating Spaces will assist fifteen regional Queensland communities from 2013-2015 and is funded by the Australia Council for the Arts, Arts Queensland, Regional Arts Australia and the participating local councils.
