

GLADSTONE REGION REGIONAL ARTS DEVELOPMENT FUND (RADF)

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST 2019-20

The Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council partnership program, providing financial assistance for arts and cultural development activities for the Gladstone Region.

RADF supports professional Gladstone Region artists and arts workers, including those working in a cultural development context, to practice originality and innovation in the development of quality arts activities and initiatives.

Gladstone Regional Council Arts and Cultural Policy is available online at:
<http://www.gladstone.qld.gov.au/policies>

Funding Priorities 2019-20

1. COMMUNITY AND COMMITTEE TRAINING TO DEVELOP THOROUGH SUBMISSIONS

Building project development and arts business skills with mentoring, consulting and training opportunities to develop thorough submissions.

2. PORTFOLIO PERSPECTIVES

Increasing project capacity with diverse artform partnerships. Work with new partners to gain wider perspective. This could be geographic locality, local business and industry or artform genre.

3. RECORD IT

Build cultural reference material through innovative, cultural records for the community collection, including photography, new media and soundscapes.

Funding Categories

There are six funding categories: Developing Regional Skills, Building Community Cultural Capacity, Regional Partnerships, Cultural Tourism, Concept Development and Contemporary collections/stories.

Funding Rounds

Applications are assessed by a local committee of dedicated arts and culture representatives, who make funding recommendations Council. Two rounds are hosted, annually. Out of Round funding opportunities are available to Developing Regional Skills submissions and must be submitted at least six weeks prior to the commencement of the proposed activity.

Eligibility

Gladstone Region individual professional artists, emerging professional artists, arts workers, cultural workers or project coordinators who are permanent residents or Australian citizens, as well as local arts and cultural groups, can apply for funding to support specific, short-term projects.

If based outside Gladstone Region, the applicant must demonstrate how the project will directly benefit local arts and culture.

RADF will not support 100% of any project. Refer to Guidelines for further information including: What RADF does not support. <http://gragm.qld.gov.au/radf>

Application Process

Stage 1: If you are new to the RADF program you must consult the RADF Liaison Officer for an information briefing. (No application can be considered unless Stage 1. has been completed by new applicants.)

Stage 2: Complete and submit the Expression of Interest (EOI) (online or hardcopy) by the due date.

Stage 3: The RADF Liaison Officer or an appointed mentor will contact you to discuss your EOI.

Stage 4: Complete and submit the full application form, including budget and supporting documents by the due date.
