Award recipients

First Prize:
Page De Silva (GWSS)
The Aussie Bushwalk

I did this because when I think of Australia I always think of bushwalks, hat, sun and kangaroos. I think of these things because the sun reminds me of hot days in Australia. The kangaroo is on our fifty-cent coin in Australian money and bushwalk is just in the outback. And that's what this picture means about Australia to me.

Second Prize:
Genna Downie, (KKSS)
Australia From Sun to Surf

I believe Australia is great because it has everything from sun, which is the Australian outback, to surf, which are our beaches.

Third Prize:
Madison Baker
(SSLC)
Sunset of Uluru

It's a soft pastel drawing of Uluru at sunset with Aboriginal people looking at the sacred place that we call Uluru and a kangaroo spotting the Aborigines staring at Uluru.

SECTION TWO:
Highly Commended

Bonnie-Jean Murratt (GWSS) Hungry Echidna
Echidnas are known throughout Australia. I made this picture because I've always loved them and this is something that I can keep and it's worth it.

Kristopher Kennedy (SJBCPS) Aussie Mozzie
There was a man from 'Aussie'
Who was sitting in his 'cossie'
When suddenly he felt a bite
And then he said "that's alright!
It's not Australia Day without a MOZZIE!"

Rosemary Williams (GWSS) Uluru Sunset
I like these colours because they are beautiful. They are like the Aboriginal colours.

Kate McAuley (KKSS)
Day at the Beach
A lovely day at one of our great Australian beaches.
