Emily Hiscox
Rolling Hills
(LSS)

A sunset over rolling hills in the Australian outback with hot air balloons flying high. The dingoes are representing Australian animals and an Australian flag stands in the middle.

Third Prize:
Georgia Hornsey
Reef Messenger
(GWSS)

A turtle shell has been painted to remind the sea creatures of the beautiful reef they live in and how they are lucky to live free in Australia..

SECTION TWO
Highly Commended

XII Apostles

Steven William Gaston
Sunset of the Twelve
Apostles
(KKSS)

It tells the waves crashing into the Apostles but they don't get wrecked. Just like how we Australians can overcome anything.

Amy Giles
The Beauty of Australia
(KKSS)

First, I was drawing the flag. Then, I saw other people in my class were drawing an Australian shaped flag. So, that's when it came to me to draw this art work, but I thought I still need more to describe Australia. I added in some animals that are native to Australia as well as water, states and territories that are beautiful things of Australia.

Isabella Little
Airborne
(SSCPS)

Australia has some of the most beautiful animals and we are mainly known for our birds. I decided to draw a Rainbow Lorikeet because they are very bright and colourful, and great to draw. I also put the native wattle tree in the background to show some of Australia's nature.

Bella Wellsted
Bushfire
(WSS)

When Dad was in the fire brigade when he was a teenager, they got caught in one of the big fires. They had to drive through it. He could hardly breathe.
