Matt Davitt

Wartburg State School

Baffle Creek

I painted this particular painting because it reminds me of different parts of Baffle Creek.

Ebony Duckett

Wartburg State School

The Flags

The reason I drew the Australian flag is because when I think of Australia I think of the Australian flag. I also drew the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags because they are a part of Australia.

Emily Edwards

Wartburg State School

Wild

This is where all my favourite Australian flowers grow.

Chloe Elliott

Wartburg State School

A Good Weekend

I drew this because I was thinking of the holidays.

Paris Fallon

Kin Kora State School

Aussie Aussie Aussie

Four main things about Australia.

Melanie Files

Wartburg State School

Boomerang

The reason why I drew it is because when I thought of Australia I thought of the first people on the land who were Aboriginals. One of their hunting weapons is the Boomerang.

Kylie Fleming

Wartburg State School

The Australian Home Garden

For this painting I thought of the Australian Chelsea Garden because of its wonderful delicacies.

Scott Fleming

Wartburg State School

Dripping Rock

I got the idea for this artwork from a bush walk at Cania Gorge. My family went there in the school holidays.

Jess Foster

Wartburg State School

Dingo

The dingo is lying on the log and he is guarding his food.

Tim Foster

Wartburg State School

Bush

When it floods the trees go under water.

Steven William Gaston

Kin Kora State School

Sunset of the Twelve Apostles

It tells the waves crashing into the Apostles but they don't get wrecked. Just like how we Australians can overcome anything.

Amy Giles

Kin Kora State School

The Beauty of Australia

First, I was drawing the flag. Then, I saw other people in my class were drawing an Australian shaped flag. So, that's when it came to me to draw this art work, but I thought I still need more to describe Australia. I added in some animals that are native to Australia as well as water, states and territories that are beautiful things of Australia.

Cody Gormley

Kin Kora State School

Red Kangaroo

I chose the Red Kangaroo because it shows the true spirit of Australia. I just love them.

Maddyson Graham

Kin Kora State School

Amazing Australia

This piece of artwork represents the amazing features of Australia, such as; whales, Great Barrier Reef, sun and our remarkable rainforest. I drew these features because when I was younger I went around Australia and these were some of my most memorable times in our amazing Australia. This is why I love my country of Australia.

Turbines

When we went to Canberra we saw the wind turbines on the hill. Seeing these turbines produce electricity was a lifetime experience.

Barnabas Kamasz

Gladstone Central State School

I Love Australia

I'd like to go to Uluru because I haven't been there, yet.

Brianne Kelly

Wartburg State School

Rules Beach

At Rules Beach the water is calm and the sand is smooth.

Skye La Morticella

Wartburg State School

Aboriginal Land

I drew the Aboriginal land because they were the first people in Australia until white men came.

Tamara La Morticella

Wartburg State School

Aboriginal Been Hunting

I chose this because Aboriginal men were the first men in Australia.

Cadence Lindley

Kin Kora State School

Uluru

I chose Uluru because it is peaceful and quiet.

Harrison Little

Wartburg State School

Australian Mountains

This is my idea of an Australian landscape.

Isabella Little

Star of the Sea Catholic Primary School

Airborne

Australia has some of the most beautiful animals and we are mainly known for our birds. I decided to draw a Rainbow Lorikeet because they are very bright and colourful, and great to draw. I also put the native wattle tree in the background to show some of Australia's nature.

Battle for the Lamington

In the Aboriginal parts of Australia, a kangaroo and a kookaburra battle it out over a delicious lamington.

Claudia Neill-Ballantine
Wartburg State School
Sydney Harbour at Night
I chose Sydney Harbour because Sydney Harbour Bridge is an iconic Australian structure. Australia would never be the same without Sydney.

Darcy Neill-Ballantine
Wartburg State School
Ned Kelly
I like Ned Kelly because I like History!

Angus Nichol
Lowmead State School
Australia Day
Australian icons celebrating our nation with an Aussie BBQ.

Kin Kora State School
Australian Animals
On Australia Day the animals of Australia have gathered at an Australian landmark. They show what it means to be Australian, to be proud of our country with all of its beauty, rich and rare.

Blake Rhodes
Wartburg State School
The Billabong
This is where the birds go to catch fish to eat. They nest in the trees. Snakes live around there, they eat the birds.

Wade Rhodes
Wartburg State School
Bush
My painting reminds me of parts of Baffle Creek.

Claire Richter
Kin Kora State School
The Aussie Outback
It is Uluru with the yellow Indigenous circle with the Torres Strait Islander symbol in it. It has the Australian flag in the top half and on the bottom are five of Australia's outback animals.

Kaleb Roberts-Bell
Kin Kora State School
The Sydney Opera House
I picked this Australian icon because it's a famous place to me. My father and brother went there once and they said it's awesome. I had help from a friend, but I did all the colouring and the boat, myself.

Gladstone Central State School

Australian Timeline

It has all the parts of Australia. The icons replace the stars on the flag.

Kyle Weekes

Gladstone Central State School

Sydney Sea

It was the first thing that I came up with and I said that this is too easy. It's a picture in the afternoon and I think it is a great picture of Sydney.

Jasmine Wellsteed

Wartburg State School

My Favourite Place to Be

I love being outdoors in the bush and seeing nature I think it is a really cool place to be. If I was in this picture it would make me feel really happy.
