

Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF)

2015 - 2016 Round Two Workshops

The Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) will be calling on local groups or individuals to submit Expressions of Interest for the upcoming RADF funding round.

In preparation, Flying Arts Alliance Inc. presents Stephen Clark for three specialised skill development opportunities.

10.30am to 4pm Friday, Saturday & Sunday
29-31 January 2016
Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum

Attend one day or all three, but don't miss the chance to develop your arts and culture business practices.

- Day One Grant / Funding Writing

Preparing a grant application can be a challenge at the best of times. The tools and tips provided in this workshop will increase your chances to win the support you need to get your great idea off the ground.

- Day Two Project Development

This workshop introduces the principles of effective project management and explains how a little method to the madness will help to produce a better result. At the end of the session students will understand the importance of planning and the steps in the project planning process as well as have practical understanding of writing up a project profile and a project management plan.

- Day Three Document your Artwork

This workshop introduces participants to the skills and techniques to develop a professional portfolio designed to impress. It discusses a range of practical tips and tools for writing about and documenting your work and outlines the process of presenting your portfolio with confidence.

Bookings are essential as places are limited

RADF Liaison Officer, Di Paddick
P: 4976 6766 E: gragm@Gladstonerc.qld.gov.au

The Regional Arts Development Fund is a Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council partnership program to support local arts and culture