

Saiki Children's Day

Saiki Children's Day

The Saiki Gladstone Advisory Committee and Gladstone Regional Council invite your school to join them in celebrating the 15th anniversary of the Saiki and Gladstone Sister City relationship.

A series of events are planned throughout the year starting with the

Saiki Children's Day 10am to 12pm
Friday, 3 June 2011
Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum
Cnr Goondoon & Bramston Sts, Gladstone

The morning event will be modelled on Japan's annual traditional Children's Day and aims to introduce children to Japanese culture by offering the opportunity to experience 'hands on' traditional activities such as preparing Samurai helmets, festival dolls (hina matsuri), colouring carp fish (koinobori), manga drawing, origami, juggling plus fan and kite making.

The activities will require some manual dexterity but are suitable for a range of abilities. Gallery/Museum staff and volunteers will be available to assist teachers and parents attending the morning with students. Participation is free.

A Gallery/Museum group booking form is attached for your convenience. For further information please contact
