Queensland's biggest arts network

Gladstone Arts Council's aim is to invigorate the cultural life of our community by encouraging artistic expression, establishing networks and providing opportunities for participation in arts and cultural activities.

As well as annually hosting Green Scenes: Environmental Short Film Festival in conjunction with the Gladstone Regional Council's EcoFest celebrations, supported by Queensland Alumina Limited, recent local projects include:

- 2010 ArtsYakka Swapmeet, discussing marketing, business planning, sponsorship, networking and planning and programming events for arts and cultural workers.
- 2010 In The Bin Short Film Festival and new media workshops in Gladstone supported by the Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF), Gladstone Area Group Apprentices Ltd (GAGAL) and Rio Tinto Alcan.
- 2011 Camerata of St Johns music workshops, in conjunction with the Queensland Music Festival, supported by RADF and GAGAL.

For a small annual fee members can access these opportunities, as well as take advantage of discounted ticket prices on other Queensland Arts Council opportunities, including touring shows.

Members can promote their events with the use our mailing database to share information. Membership application forms are available at the Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum. Further information can also be found at the Queensland Arts Council website www.gladstone.qac.org.au

Annual membership fees are $15 single, $20 family and $50 for an organisation.

Queensland Arts Council Inc. Affiliation

Gladstone Arts Council is one of 60 local Arts Councils throughout Queensland, affiliated with Queensland Arts Council (QAC). This link makes it one of the largest Regional Arts Networks and extensive not-for-profit community based arts organisations in Queensland.

Our Queensland network includes in excess of 6,000 regional members. Through this network, and QAC's partnerships with Queensland's leading performing arts companies, we provide a broad and dynamic range of performances, exhibitions, workshops, master classes, arts-related services and funding programs of assistance to Queensland communities.

QAC is strongly supported by the State and Federal Governments and works closely with Local Councils to play a national advocacy role for regional arts.

QAC operates core programs that provide arts access state-wide and reach a wide audience of Queenslanders annually.

Ontour inschools fires the enthusiasm of students throughout the state with the world's largest performances for schools program. It is the program of choice for engaging young Queenslanders in educational performing arts experiences. Over the past 7 years the program has performed to an audience of 3.4 million students.

Ontour onexhibition Queensland Arts Council's new exhibition program is bringing the artworks of Queensland's regional artists to communities across the state in 2011 and 2012. The 11 exhibitions in Queensland Arts Council's 2011-2012 Exhibition program feature photography, painting, textiles, sculpture, drawing, installation and printmaking.
