

School Holiday Fun

at the

Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum

Russian Rag Dolls

As part of the Pioneering Women: Russian Experience exhibition children are encouraged to create small traditional dolls from pieces of recycled material and found items. In the Russian culture these dolls are considered to have protective qualities for the children who make them.

Exhibition on display until 13 April 2013

Image: Russian Rag Dolls contributed to the exhibition by Natalie Daboul and daughter, Alexandra Daboul (10 years old). Photo by Harry Gallaher

Botanical Drawing

Early explorers took artists with them on their voyages to record what they discovered by sketching the unfamiliar flora and fauna they came across. Coastal Saga invites children to explore the exhibition and try some documentary drawing.

Exhibition on display until 3 April 2013

Image: Flindersia Australis seed pods, commonly known as Crows Ash. Photo by Harry Gallaher

Henna Dolls and Ninjas

Saiki City in Japan is the Gladstone Region's Sister City. Get creative with the 2013 Intercity Images: Gladstone Saiki Photographic Exchange and try your hand at making some Japanese themed paper dolls or ninjas.

Exhibition on display until 4 May 2013

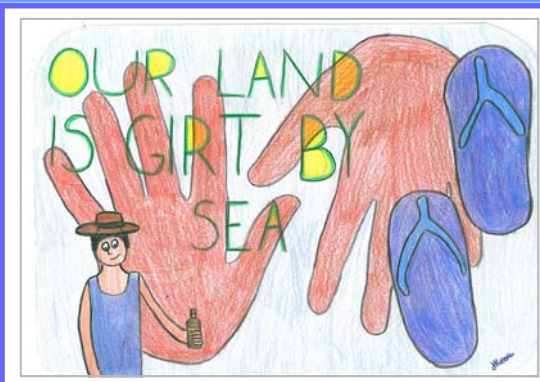

Image: Benaraby State School participates in Saiki Children's Day 2012. Photo by Di Paddick

Dominos and Dinosaurs

Coming Out is an exhibition displaying some of the unique treasures held within the Gladstone Regional Art Gallery & Museum's permanent collection. Help us celebrate these artworks with some fun hands-on building activities.

Exhibition on display until 6 April 2013

Image: Also Coming Out from near extinction, Noortasaurus!

2013 Celebrate Australia Primary School Art Competition

Entries were called from the region's young artists to celebrate 'who and what makes Australia great'. Winners were announced in January and all entries were put on display.

Exhibition on display until 15 April 2013

Image: Winner Section Two 2013, Jessica Rose, 'The Aussie Bloke', 2012

Explore the Exhibition! Children's Activity Book

A FREE activity book designed to help children understand the exhibiting displays by exploring and answering simple questions.

Once completed, get a stamp from one of our friendly staff!

