

“I WANT TO BE IN A BOOK” A STORY ABOUT CECIL BY NARELLE OLIVER

This exhibition by the late Queensland author and illustrator, Narelle Oliver (1960 -2016), shows the development of her last picture book. The exhibition is comprised of the works made for the book and a retrospective of her stunning illustrative style. Narelle began creating books using pure linocut and over time her craft evolved to include collage, frottage and mixed media.
