Johanna DeMaine is an internationally recognised ceramicist whose passion for clay was kindled in Gladstone in 1971 through Adult Education classes with the help of Jenny Elliot and Marilyn Haertel.

This survey will have early works from her time making in Calliope with her family and late husband Ted DeMaine at the DeMaine Pottery Studio Gallery, along with works from the 1980s created at the Landsborough studio, Sunshine Coast hinterland.

Also included will be some current works made in Arita, Japan and Landsborough studios with Tatsuya Tsutsui.
