Local arts and cultural groups encouraged to apply for funding

Gladstone Regional Council invites local arts and cultural groups and individuals to apply for the latest round of Gladstone Region Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF).

Gladstone Region Councillor Rick Hansen said short-term projects starting after 7 May 2019 may be eligible for the funding.

“Groups can apply for funding that falls under categories such as, developing regional skills, building community cultural capacity, regional partnerships, cultural tourism, concept development and contemporary collections/stories,” Cr Hansen said.

RADF is a partnership between the Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council to support local arts and culture in regional Queensland.

Guidelines and application forms are available from Council’s customer contact points, Gladstone Art Gallery & Museum and libraries, as well as online at www.gragm.qld.gov.au/radf
