Primary School Art Competition

Online exhibition

Australia's Horrible Fires

JYE WINGATE

Miriam Vale State School

SECTION ONE

Paint

*The bushfires are devastating, because animals are dying
from the bushfires and people are suffering the loss of their homes.*

Pristine Waterfall

PAGAN WAGSTAFF-READ

Miriam Vale State School
SECTION ONE
Paint

The pristine waterfalls are great, because they are peaceful and unpolluted, which attracts many tourists.

Beach of Lifeguards

JEFFREY DEVNEY

Gladstone Central State School

SECTION ONE

Paint, pencil and collage

Highly commended

The Scorching Outback

ADDISON HILLS

Miriam Vale State School

SECTION ONE

Sunset at Uluru

ISLA FAULKNER

Calliope State School

SECTION ONE

Collage, crayon and felt pen

I love Uluru because it is a beautiful and historic place. My picture mixes warm and cool colours through collage to recreate this magical landscape that is in our backyard, Australia.

commended

Neon Reef

AMARNI THETFORD

Star of the Sea

Catholic Primary School

SECTION ONE

Acrylic paint, watercolour
and salt

The reef is a magical place filled with colour. Preserving it so it stays beautiful is so important. Our Great Barrier Reef makes Australia great.

Mango Feast

RAYDON CONROY

St John the Baptist Catholic Primary School

SECTION TWO

Pencil, watercolour, texture and collage

One of my favourite things to do is pick fresh mangoes off the tree, but you have to watch out for these little guys. They are called green ants and they have a ferocious bite.
