

WOMEN

A CENTURY OF CHANGE

SCAVENGER HUNT

This exhibit features photographs of women throughout National Geographic's over 130 year history and from across the world. The photos are divided into six sections: joy, beauty, love, wisdom, strength, and hope. Explore the photos in each section and see if you can find...

JOY

- cherry blossoms
- turtles
- a horse
- bicycles

Find the photo of a musher on a sled. How many dogs are pulling the sled?

BEAUTY

- a tube of lipstick
- blue cowboy hat
- woman walking a dog

Find the photo of a woman with a birdcage on her head. How many birds do you count in the cage?

LOVE

- a capybara
- a bouquet of roses
- an elephant
- bicycles

Find the photo of a wedding. What color are the ballet dancers wearing?

WISDOM

- hay bales
- a tube sponge underwater

Find the photo of girls carrying chairs on their heads. How many chairs are they carrying?

STRENGTH

- a basket
- a steering wheel

Find the photo of people carrying water jugs, called jerry cans, on their backs. How many cans do you see?

HOPE

- a rhino
- a string of beads
- a loaf of bread

Find the photo of a person sitting on a stool. What color is the stool?

- Find a photo taken before 1950. Why do you think it looks different from modern photos?

- Find a photo of a woman you would consider a role model.

Who is she? _____

What does she do? _____

What do you want to do when you grow up? _____

- Find the photo of the "Afghan Girl."

What is her name _____

This photo is one of the most recognizable pictures taken by a National Geographic photographer.

Why do you think this photo is so famous?

- If you could take a photo of any woman who would it be and why?

I would take a photo of _____

Because:
